AT&T recently announced that beginning in 2024, they'll offer company-subsidized plans insured by UnitedHealthcare®. You don't need to take any action—you will automatically be enrolled in the AT&T Group Medicare Advantage (PPO) Plan and will be able to access your new benefits starting January 1, 2024.

What this plan offers you

This is a custom Group Medicare Advantage (PPO) Plan uniquely designed for AT&T retirees and eligible dependents. More than 87,000 AT&T members have chosen to enroll with a 96% satisfaction rate.<sup>1</sup>

This plan provides benefits beyond Original Medicare, including enhanced features compared to plans in the individual marketplace, and is not available anywhere else. Benefits include:

- National provider access<sup>2</sup>
- Low out-of-pocket medical expenses
- Low or no monthly premium
- Free fitness program
- In-home wellness visits with UnitedHealthcare® HouseCalls<sup>3</sup>
- Rewards for certain health care activities
- Post-discharge meals and transportation
- 8 hours of free in-home care support each month

If you would like to enroll in a plan with the same great benefits above plus dental, vision and expanded hearing benefits, you will have the option of enrolling in the AT&T Group Medicare Advantage (PPO) Plus Plan starting October 16.

If you decide you don't want to be enrolled in the AT&T Group Medicare Advantage (PPO) Plan, you can call UnitedHealthcare starting October 16 to decline this coverage. These are the only AT&T-sponsored plan options for 2024 and by declining coverage, you may not be able to enroll in AT&T-sponsored coverage until the next annual enrollment period. As a reminder, if an AT&T retiree declines enrollment into the AT&T-sponsored coverage, their family members will not be eligible for AT&T coverage for 2024.
